FOREWORD

Another school year has passed, but it will not be forgotten. Along with memories of detentions, unceasing assignments, and exams, we will have better thoughts of ball games, school dances, and activity programs.

The Minnewaukan staff has tried to record all the events that will bring back pleasant memories when we take our yearbook from the shelf in years to come.

We will find pictures of forgotten faces and remember the good times we had with them back in BHS. We will think of the students who are filling our places, taking part in the same activities that we enjoyed, and going to the same classes to learn to live in order to live to learn.

Our 1949 school review, based on this theme of learning to live and living to learn, helped us to realize the many classes from which we have gained knowledge in both grade school and high school.

When we open our Minnewaukan in future years, we will see pictures of those teachers who taught us to learn to live and we will wonder where they are and whether they are still teaching. Yes, this 1949 yearbook will give us much to think about.

The Minnewaukan staff wishes to express their gratitude to photographers Mr. Zarling and Mr. Mueller for their effort. Also we wish to thank those who helped with sales, those who contributed the material, and everyone else who in any way helped make this annual possible. Special thanks should be given to the Minnewaukan advisor, Miss Cornish, for the work she did and for her enduring patience with the staff.

Dear Bev -
Best wishes to
a darn nice girl.
B. - good thru summer
+ see you next year,
When the class of
'50 reigns -

MISS MARJORIE ENRIGHT

DEDICATION

Everyone who has gone to Baraboo High knows of room 20. In some way every student has come to know Miss Enright. As a geometry, banking, bookkeeping, and homeroom teacher, her splendid personality and sincere cooperation have endeared her to one and all. The Minnewaukan staff especially would like to thank her for all she has done for it in the past. Thus this year we are dedicating the 1949 Minnewaukan to Miss Marjorie Enright.

SUPT. GORDON WILLSON

Academics

The slogan "We Live to Learn and Learn to Live" may be appropriately illustrated by dividing the "academics" into five classifications and applying the slogan to each separate grouping.

No other field of study so literally refers to the slogan as do the social studies. From the "Who discovered America?" of history to the "Name the five basic drives of the human being" in sociology, one constantly learns through examples set by others and formulas handed down from the past, how to face life successfully and happily—how to be useful citizens and persons.

The two sciences, physical and natural, teach one how man and the things about man are constructed and developed. Thus one is better able to understand, accept, and use one's self and one's environment to improve the world.

Everyone should be taught early in life to think for one's self and how to face and solve problems systematically. To help accomplish this aim the school teaches mathematics, and by learning to think, the desire to learn is encouraged.

Without an efficient control of some language, the basis of civilization, none can be successful. Communication between friends, other peoples of the areas, and nations cultivates knowledge and encourages progress. Through language one learns to appreciate and understand culture of other eras and other surroundings.

The practical skills first help a student to discover wherein abilities and interests lie and then the skills are cultivated. Thus a person is taught how to be a successful worker. One learns how to earn.

Thus each grade level students of Baraboo High School are learning to live and living to learn within each classroom.

Dear Leo -

Now that we seniors have graduated we remember the time when others told us to enjoy our remaining high school years. So I'll tell you - and it's no joke; you never realize what you're missing until you've had it. Best wishes -

Nancy Brennan.

D A R AWARD TO JO HARVEY

The honor of being given a chance for the Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizenship Pilgrimage Award this year was presented to Josephine Harvey.

Each year one senior girl is chosen by members of her class and the faculty in every Wisconsin high school which wishes to participate in the national contest. The girls compete for a $100 award which is presented to the girl ranking highest in answering a questionnaire distributed in February.

Josephine Harvey's choice by her classmates was based on her qualities of dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism.

CLASS PLAY SET IMPRESSIVE

Everyone worked hard for the success of "Death Takes a Holiday." The production staff should certainly be given due credit for its fine job. Special recognition should be given to Lee Kinney who painted the garden scene for the impressive set.

HARVEY AND WALKER LEAD IN SCHOLASTICS

Valedictorian for the Class of 1949 is a girl who has been given many well-deserved honors: Josephine Harvey whose four year average was 94.433. David Walker with a 93.58 average is class salutatorian.

The next eight seniors in scholastic rank are as follows: C. Jensen, R. Radel, R. Schultz, P. Nelson, G. Holdorf, A. Schultz, D. Waffensmith, and D. Swafford. Two students attended Baraboo High School less than two years, so they have not been listed in the top ten, but who

A similar contest was sponsored by the Elks, and Jack Teich took first prize of $10. Lois Schutz won second prize, $6. Topic for their essays was "Make Democracy Work."

MR. EYE SPEAKS AT GRADUATION

Glen Eye, Professor of Education, University of Wisconsin, was speaker for the graduation exercises held at the Al Ringling Theater on June 9th. The American Legion awards for leadership and athletics were presented.

Music for graduation was provided for under the direction of Miss Jane Haslanger. "You'll Never Walk Alone" was among the numbers sung by the choir.

ENTIRE JUNIOR CLASS WORKS ON PLAY

When you think back to your Class Play, the main thing you remember was the cast. The cast was important, but they alone did not determine the success of the play. Most of the "behind the scene" work was done by some division of the production staff.

Make-up was one of the big necessities of the play and wasn't the glamorous job some seem to think. The make-up committee was directed by Miss Dahl and Miss Leissmann; assistants, Mary Sherwood, Ann Isenberg and Audrey Rundecker were student members of the staff.

Getting together the "props" that are so vital to a play was by no means an easy job, either. Jeannie Brownell, the chairman, and her committee found this out when they tried to fulfill the demands of the play.

A play must also have publicity to be a success. Lynette Olson and her committee capably took care of this job for "And Came the Spring."

Tickets and programs, too, are important although the committees are small. Tickets committee consisted of "Lefty" Hornick and Tom Lueders, and Mary Walsh and Shirley Cash took care of programs. Secretary Sharon Hauge took care of detention slips for tardy salesmen.

JUNIORS ELECT AMUNDSON FOR PRESIDENT

Sept. 19th marked the second meeting of the Junior Class, the purpose being to elect the officers and advisors. At the previous meeting a nominating committee was chosen to select candidates. The nominees for President were Eugene McGonigle, Duane Klingenmeyer, Pat Stone, and Jim Amundson. Only the last two were voted on because the other two refused to run. Jim Amundson was elected. The other officers elected were: Vice President, Joyce Alexander; Secretary, Sharon Hauge; and Treasurer, "Lefty" Hornick. Last but not least, Miss Kroening and Mr. Griffey were chosen to lead the Junior Class to glory as the advisors.

NEW CREST SELECTED FOR CLASS RINGS

A major problem confronting the Class of 1950 was whether to change the crest on the class rings.

A committee consisting of representatives from all undergraduate classes decided that the entrance of BHS should be used as a model for the crest.

Sketches were submitted and finally the committee picked the most suitable for 1949 and those to follow. Thus the elephant seen on the rings of this year's graduates will no longer appear.

WE HAVE A LOT TO LEARN

RIFLE CLUB ORGANIZED BY STUDENTS

The Rifle Club for students was this year organized by a number of members of the sophomore class. Mr. Baer was asked to serve as advisor and the officers were: President, John McArthur; Secretary, Hurvey Haskins, and the Treasurer, Philip Pointon.

Weekly meetings were held and after rifle instructions the club, composed of 27 boys and 10 girls, began target practice. Topping all records was the marksmanship of Mary Walsh.

This year "postal" matches were engaged in; however, it is hoped that inter-school competition will be developed next year.

UNUSUAL EXPERIMENTS IN SCIENCE

A number of unusual experiments were carried out this year by the members of the General Science classes. The examination of hair from different animals under a microscope was conducted by Kay Kinney and Marilyn Hickethier. John Bowerman made an experiment with various types of toothpaste to test whether it would scratch the enamel of the teeth. Mary Mudd experimented with silicones, proving that they don't freeze or burn.

Dear Beverly,
I've really gotten a lot of pleasure out of sitting next to you this year Bev. it's just too bad you couldn't have played Bass Clarinet before. How will you find your place next year without me? Ha.!! No doubt the section will get along much better without me.
don't treat the boys too rough next year.
although I don't show it I really think a awfully lot of you Beverly & you are one girl I shall never forget.
pw Durkey had a smile.
I want to wish you loads of luck and love for the future. You deserve it & if you keep up the good work, I know you'll be very Happy Birthday

Athletics

Needless to say Baraboo is proud of the '48-'49 athletic season and the honors that have been heaped upon the teams, the coaches, and those who were in some way instrumental in pushing the record to the top.

When the excitement dies down, the question of "Will we win games next year?" will be heard. However, coaches and athletes have learned that a game is NEVER lost, for each player makes personal gains not attainable in the classroom.

When an eager youth tries out for the team, he expresses a desire to excel. From the first he learns the rules of competition. He learns that to pass the elimination, he must meet the requirements of interest, ability, attentiveness, and preparation.

And if he does not make his goal, he learns to either accept his lack of ability and turn his interests to something in which he is better able to excel, or he gathers a new and stronger determination with practice, study, and a re-attempt to conquer.

Once on the team the athlete learns obedience, observance, and determination. He learns that he is a cog in the machinery of teamwork; no more and no less important than the other cogs, but holding a definite responsibility to the machine as a whole.

Finally, if he is on the winning team, he learns modesty, tolerance, humility, appreciation, and respect for the other side. If he is on the losing team, he learns acceptance of loss without complaint, admiration for the ability of the other team, and to use his own mistakes as a guide for correction.

From the greenhorn to the star player, athletics are providing good medicine—preventative and curative. In time, many of the "inevitable" problems of social life may be corrected, perhaps eliminated, by men who in their youth were conditioned to think clearly and cautiously on the playing field.

Though each participant may not become a Babe Ruth or a Red Grange, his spectator interest in sports helps to kindle the flame of enthusiastic competition to a brightness that will never fade as long as there remain sport-minded youth.

My favorite page. The next along with the rest two. Will I see you made Geometry good fun It took me two yrs to do it. Good luck to a future teacher

NON-CONFERENCE WINS FORETELL GOOD FOOTBALL SEASON

Marking tallied twice, while Luce and Dickie each hit pay-dirt to defeat Madison West "B's" 24-0, September 17.

Using the first quarter as practice against the T formation, the line went to work stopping all Sparta charges, opening holes on offense to let Luce, Marking, and Dickie each cross the goal once, and helping Waddell score on a blocked punt. Score 26-7.

ANNEX TWO IN CONFERENCE SCHEDULE

The local eleven racked up its first conference victory, 18-6, on October 1. Luce and Marking scored 6 points each; Welk scooped up a fumble and crossed the goal. Stoughton's lone score came via an aerial attack.

Hampered by rain and a slippery field, Dickie romped to 2 TD's of 31 yards each, while Marking scored on a screen play good for 35 yards. The game ended when a Wisconsin High halfback was dropped in his end zone for 2 points. Score: Baraboo 22, Wisconsin High 13.

TEAM ROLLS OVER THE DELLS ON HOMECOMING NIGHT

Baraboo punted only once as the team, one of the seven undefeated teams in the state at the close of its season, turned out TD after TD. Dickie led with 3 TD's, while Luce had 2 and LeMoine 1. The Dells scored in the second quarter against the 2nd and 3rd teams. Score: 40-7.

TEAMWORK RESULTS IN TWO 20-0 GAMES

The Portage team was so outplayed that it gained only 45 yards all night while Baraboo made 56 yards through the air alone. Luce, Marking, and LeMoine scored with Ware kicking 2 out of 3 extra points.

Baraboo scored in the 1st, 2nd, and 4th quarters to ruin Richland Center's Dads' Day. Coach Leidholdt's rampaging line continued to make way for Marking and Luce.

BARABOO WINS SHARE OF SOUTHERN TEN CHAMPIONSHIP

Reedsburg felt mighty low after its 7-0 defeat. Only score came in the third quarter on a 70 yard drive with Luce blasting through the Purple's 10 man line. Ware kicked the extra point. Baraboo made 10 first downs to 3 for Reedsburg and a total of 199 yards to their 76.

CAGERS SPLIT OPENING GAMES—3 WINS AND 3 LOSSES

In the season's opening game Edgewood defeated Baraboo's cagers, 61-47. Don Zack of Edgewood was the "Big Gun" with 30 points. Wilson scored 13 points. However, the opening conference game was a victory over Fort Atkinson by a score of 43-23. Marking and Wilson shared scoring honors with 12 points apiece.

Edgerton edged out Baraboo in the last minute of a thriller as Ken Woerth dropped in a long shot, 49-47. Marking led Baraboo's cagers with 10 points in this game and again with 16 points as the team easily defeated Mauston, 52-39. The locals started out fast, leading at the end of the first quarter, 18-1.

Free throws won the game for BHS as it downed Portage, 48-39. Wilson poured in 7 baskets and 6 free throws to lead both teams in scoring. The win was followed by a trip to Monroe which was unpleasant to say the least—score: 55-29.

REEDSBURG AND BARABOO TRAVEL TO NORTHEASTERN WISCONSIN

In a slow, unimpressive game Baraboo defeated West De Pere, 34-17. Dickie paced the locals with 12 points. This was the first game of a doubleheader with Reedsburg meeting Shawano.

A hard fought contest was lost to Shawano the second night, 54-47. A bad third quarter in which the locals were outscored 13 to 3 lost the game for BHS.

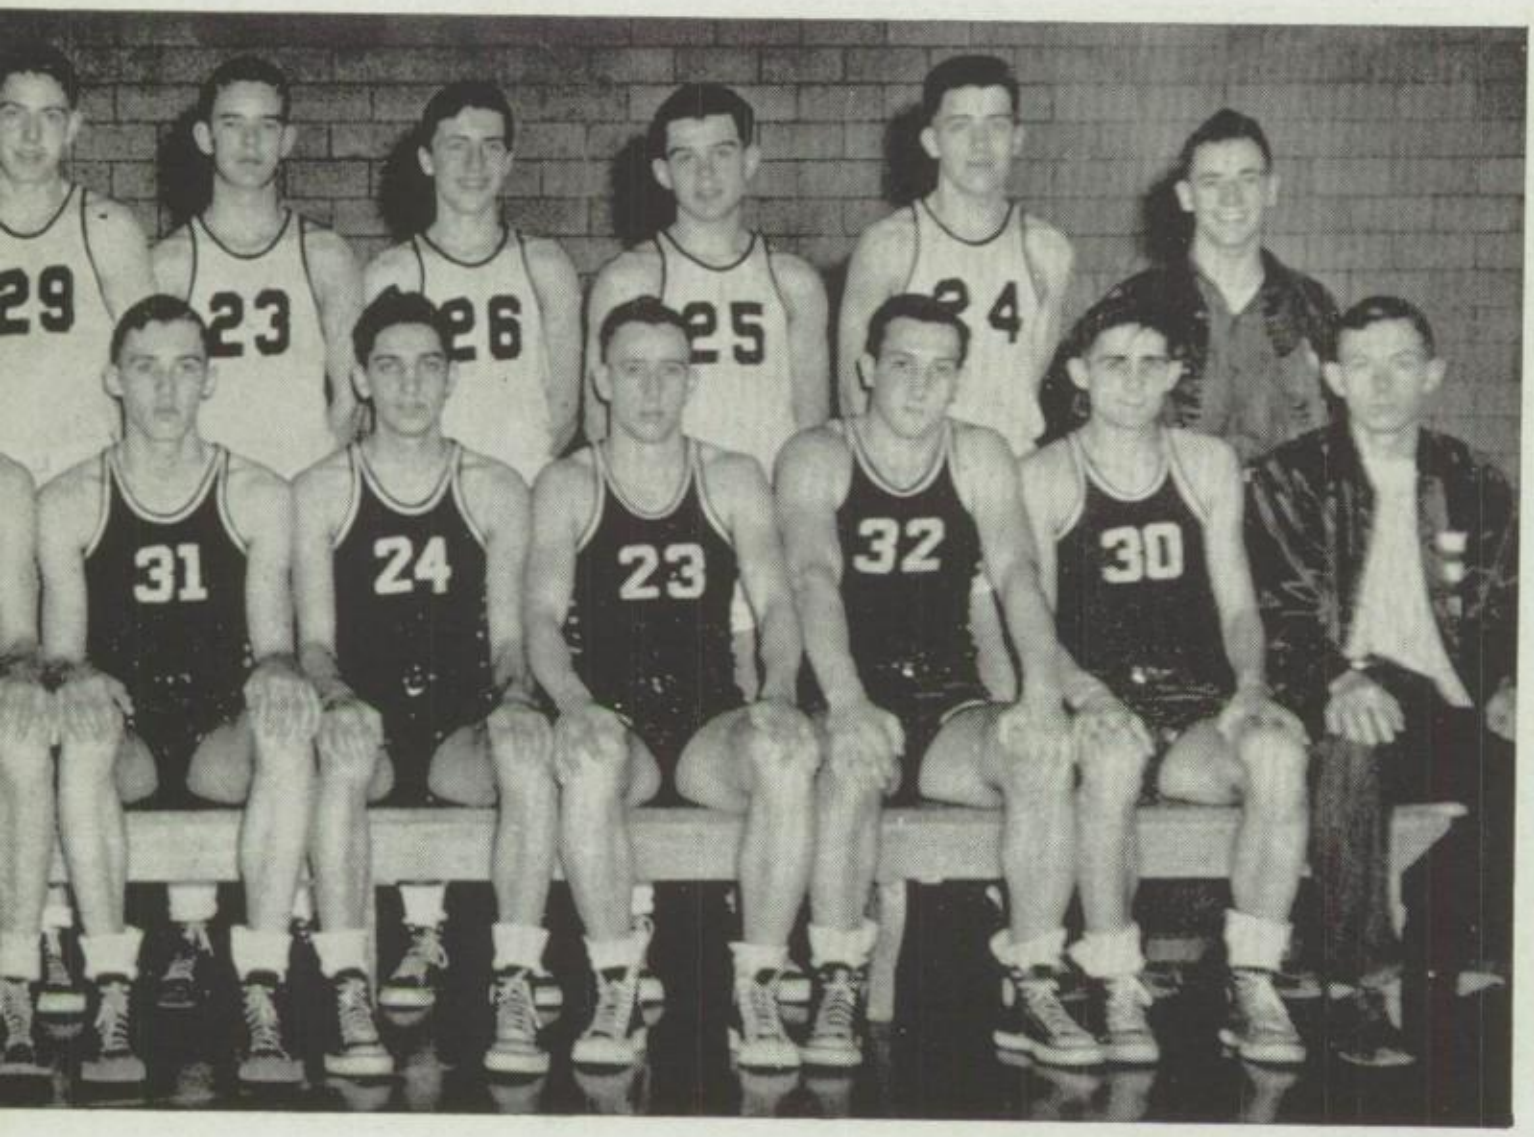
49's FIRST GAMES FEATURE A WIN, LOSS OF LUCE, AND BAD 3RD QUARTER

In the first game of the new year the Circus City cagers downed a determined Wisconsin Dells quintet in a good game, 44-43. Then Reedsburg's height proved to be too much for the Baraboo cagers—minus Bob Luce. Wilson was high for the locals as he dumped in 12 points in the 52-29 game.

Next the squad traveled to Stoughton to lose a hard fought battle, 48-44. Stoughton had a hot third quarter in which they sank no less than 20 points, and it was again a bad third quarter that let Richland Center defeat the team, 60-53. Marking scored 14 points in the losing cause which was a game postponed from January 4.

REEDSBURG GAME BRINGS CLOSE TO FAIR SEASON

Baraboo got back in the win column by defeating Portage, 41-33. Wilson, who was switched to center, scored 19 points. He scored 20 points as second place Wisconsin High was dropped down a notch, defeated by a score of 38-34.



H. Myers, D. Wilson, D. Dickie, H. Hornick, C. Marking, A. Astle
P. Farrell, D. Quale, L. Bortles, R. Marquardt, J. Luce, H. Schmidtke

Richland Center's sharpshooters proved "a little too much" as BHS was dropped, 52-29. Wilson scored 15 points. Another disappointment appeared when, due to the absence of Zeimke, Weston, and Dickie, who were sick, Baraboo lost a decision to the Dells, 34-37. The boys fought hard, but too much of the power was gone.

Reedsburg showed the power which made it Southern Ten champs as Baraboo was downed, 38-28. The big boys from Reedsburg just couldn't be stopped.

REEDSBURG TAKES SUB-REGIONAL AND REGIONAL TOURNAMENTS

Reedsburg again stopped BHS in the first game of the sub-regional tournament. This time it was 44-21. Consolation crown, however, was gained from Wisconsin Dells in the last game of the tournament, 44-35. In the Regional Tournament Baraboo lost to Watertown in the consolation finals, 44-30.

QUALE LEADS 'B' TEAM SCORING

VOLLEYBALL TEAM WINS SOUTHERN TEN AND CITY CHAMPIONSHIPS

For the second time in three years Coach Garner Smith produced a Southern Ten Championship team. The championship was secured by defeating Edgerton in three games out of four on the home court after winning the northern half title at Richland Center.

On March 19th the team went to Richland Center and placed first competing against Portage, Wisconsin Dells, and Richland Center. The locals won the first set from the Dells 15-4 and 15-7. The second set against Portage was almost as easy, as they won 15-7 and 15-7. The third set against Center was a little different as Center won the first game, but the locals pulled back to win the set, 11-15, 15-1, 15-9.

In the championship playoff at Baraboo against the southern half champions, Edgerton, Baraboo came out on top after pulling from behind. Again Baraboo lost the first game: score, 15-8; then came back to win the next three games by scores of 15-11, 15-7, and 15-13.

The '49 team also won the city championship by winning five straight sets without a defeat.

PORTAGE BADLY DEFEATED BY TRACK TEAM

This year's track team was one of the most versatile in years. Nearly 40 boys reported for practice and many became top point-getters. All-around balance and depth in each event was displayed by the team.

The first event, the Madison Relays, was entered mainly as an opportunity to get in shape for the first local meet with Portage in which a handsome score of 75½ to 37½ was piled up by the local trackmen. The team took eight firsts and the relay. Scoring centered around Wilson, Steinhorst, Marking, Luther, and Hornick with the other boys racking up more points as they gained experience.

TRIANGULAR MEET TAKEN BY BARABOO

April 28th the team scored easily to win the triangular meet with 97 points. Dells came in second with 43 and Reedsburg had 28.

MAY MEETS TAKE THE LIMELIGHT

The first week of May the boys traveled to Adams-Friendship and to the invitational meet at Fort Atkinson. These meets were followed by the Southern Ten Conference Meet the 13th of May, sectional meet at Madison on the 21st, and State Championship Meet on May 28th.

1948 TENNIS TEAM WINS HONORS

Last year's tennis team had a very good season, winning all local meets and second in the Southern Ten Conference. The doubles team won the Southern Ten Doubles Championship.

Baraboo defeated Reedsburg twice, won the triangular meet, and finished second to Monroe in the Southern Ten Meet. Mr. Scott coached the team in 1948 and again this year he is acting in this capacity.

Activities

Learning to live would be incomplete without our social highlights. Extra-curricular activities teach the student to develop a social awareness that spurs him to active participation in and appreciation of the fine arts. Not only are they valuable in helping to widen his cultural interest, but they teach him how to work and play harmoniously with those around him.

In no other activity does a student have such a useful opportunity to express originality of thought and verse as that of journalism. For those interested in reporting current events and influencing public opinion, there is the Baraboo Hi-Lite, our own school newspaper, which keeps the student body well informed about happenings concerning Baraboo High School. For those interested in planning unique and attractive forms of literary presentations, there is the Annual Staff which edits a yearly account of student activities.

Dramatics helps students to express themselves freely and definitely and to interpret more accurately the deeper and more meaningful side of beauty and greatness. Not only is a student taught how to impress upon others lastingly his own ideas through speech and gesture, but he is taught how to respond to the feelings of others on an acceptable plane.

Forensics teaches one to use his body, his vocabulary, and his sequence of ideas to relay to others effectively ideas which he wishes them to accept and act upon. He is taught to influence public opinion through the projection of his own interest and vitality.

Through understanding and appreciation of music, one can communicate to others without the use of language. Participation in music developes one's imaginative and expressive abilities and helps to create a lasting enjoyment of this mutual bond between peoples.

School clubs teach the student to be responsible and adaptable through observant association with others; he learns the acceptable patterns of behavior set up by society and how to conform to them. This knowledge enables him to take part in various activities with a confident assurity that he will be able to handle efficiently any problem of propriety that may present itself.

Thus, all these activities help us learn to live intelligently.

This page seems to fit in ok with "that gal" I'm writing to now so – I'll write away some more. Ya! Your quite a majorette. Harf Harf Portage – Richland Center, Reedsburg etc. Quite the places – you should know. Well, last year I wished you luck in majoretting and you succeeded and it makes me very happy. I can't see anything to wish for you this year because it seems you have gotten "everything" along the way and next year should really be quite the year for you.

No stalling, Bev, I think lots of you.

Love LaVonne

Bev, I hope we can go swimming this summer like we use to because that really was fun. I know I will never forget the past things we have done and probably not the things we will do in the future. I suppose it would be a good idea for me to quit writing this novel and maybe accomplish some thing else yet today. (Is that possible? Ha)

"We Live to Learn and Learn to Live"

I probably could have quit long time ago – I sake for space in yet. That would be drastic – huh? It seems he usually finds room through. That's the flame of yours right now – (we will see)

A CAPPELLA CHOIR SEASON OPENS WITH ELECTIONS

The A Cappella choir held its first rehearsal on Wednesday, September 8th. Soon after this, officers were elected as follows: President, Eldon Schmidtgall; Vice-President, Mary Beth Wollenhaupt; Secretary-Treasurer, Tom Hawkins; Student Council, Jack Bittrich; Librarian, Jo Harvey. New members were selected for the triple trio, composed of nine girls in choir. As a special feature of the year, a class in music appreciation and conducting was organized for all choir members interested. With these plans laid, a bright future beckoned.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT HIGHLIGHTS THE SEASON

By November 8th, plans were well underway for the Christmas concert. Because of the large number of people who wished to hear the concert, three performances were planned. The auditorium was beautifully decorated with "snow" covered pine bows. A processional by the choir opened the concert, followed by The Nativity Tableau featuring Girls' Glee Club and a performance by the Junior Glee Club. With music and costume, the sacred mood of Christmas was created. The second half of the program

BARABOO HIGH TAKES HONORS AT FESTIVAL

For many years the music festival at Portage will be remembered, for Baraboo High School led all other schools in the number of star-firsts received, having a total of 20 stars. Wisconsin Rapids held second place with 19 star-firsts. The combined efforts of Miss Haslanger, as director of the A Cappella choir, and Mr. Solum, as director of the band, were largely responsible for the fine showing made by the music department of BHS.

The A Cappella choir received a first division rating, singing: "Tenebrae Factae Sunt," a sacred number sung in Latin, and "Babylon Is Fallen," a spiritual, both unaccompanied. "Into the Night" was the accompanied number sung.

"Twas the Night Before Christmas." Triple Trio—(Back Row) J. Harvey, S. Benzies, E. Waddell, P. Nelson, E. Hardy and J. Maxwell; (Front Row) M. Rhode, C. Gomon, M. Walsh. "Deck the Halls."

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB PRESENTS NATIVITY TABLEAU

Surely this season of Girls' Glee Club will be long remembered. They took a very active part in the Christmas concert, especially the committee which took charge of properties and costumes for the Nativity tableau. The Girls' Glee Club float won second place in the Homecoming parade. The officers for the year were: President, Evelyn Waddell; Secretary-Treasurer, Mary Beth Wollenhaupt; Librarian, Phyllis Campbell; and Student Council, Betty Bittner. At the music festival held in Portage, Girls' Glee Club won a first.

KIWANIS DINNER HEIGHTENS TRIPLE TRIO SEASON

A Kiwanis Club Christmas dinner proved one of the outstanding events of this year's season for Triple Trio. The girls provided a program of Christmas music with the members of Kiwanis joining in on the Christmas carols. In this same spirit, Triple Trio participated in the Christmas concert, offering "Up on the House Top" and a Fred Waring version of "Jingle Bells."

The rest of the year saw appearances at the School Review, a P.T.A. forum held at the Community Center in March, the Farmers' Institute, and an evening program at the Fortnightly Club.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB WINS FIRST AT PORTAGE

The Boys' Glee Club was entered in the music festival and received a first rating. Its entries were "Rain and the River," "De Gospel Train," and "Mighty Like an Eagle". Everett Harding, bass, represented the boys at the State Festival.

Early in the season the officers of Boys' Glee Club were elected. They were: President, Roland DuPuis; Vice-President, Dave Walker; Secretary-Treasurer, Harland Hornick; Librarian, Jim Gallagher; and Student Council, John Langer. Boys' Glee Club did not sing at the Christmas concert this year. However, the cast for the Nativity tableau was made up of members of Boys' Glee Club.

DOUBLE QUARTET SCORES AGAIN

There's something about a boys' quartet that steals the hearts of listeners, and this year's double quartet bore out the maxim very well. The first time the quartet appeared publicly was at local elimination contest when they rendered the ever delightful "Sophomoric Philosophy" and a negro spiritual "Oh, Lord, What a Mornin'." Their acclaim following this performance gave them an opportunity to go to District Festival where they received a first starred rating; then they entered the State contest.

Other engagements included a performance at the School Review, a dinner at Kiwanis Club, entertainment at a Ladies' Circle at the Methodist Church and several numbers for a Garden Club meeting.

MARCHING BAND DISPLAYS NOVEL LIGHTING EFFECTS

With the opening of school the Band adopted a rigid schedule of marching; practicing indoors when it rained, and marching up and down and around the city when the sun shone. The BHS Band was presented with its first lighted baton by some Baraboo business men. Through the generosity of Mr. Benzies the Band tried out a novel cap-lighting effect. A large blue and gold "B" was formed, much to the delight of a Stoughton-Baraboo audience. This same operation was used with variations for the rest of the football season.

ANNUAL CHRISTMAS CONCERT PRESENTED BY BAND

As the Christmas season approached, the Band moved its equipment to the Senior High Auditorium, and amid all preparations for the concert time was taken off to play a short concert for the Sauk County School Board Convention.

The night of the concert arrived, and with it came one of the worst ice storms of the season. Despite Nature the auditorium was filled. Before the concert the Band presented Mr. Solum with a robe and scarf.

A humorous number with variations by John Langer, "A Bed Time Story," with the hero named Dangerous Dan McGrew, was greatly enjoyed. Also featured in the concert was "The Christmas Story" with narration by John Langer.

A belated Christmas present for the Band were the band room drapes presented by the Band Mothers, to whom the Band offers many thanks.

BHS STUDENT VISITS NEW YORK

The Band was very honored when one of its members, Ann Isenberg, was picked from hundreds of applicants and awarded a trip to New York with "A Weekend with Music." Ann gave the Band an informal report on her activities in New York which included a symphony concert and the Metropolitan Opera.

FOURTEEN REPRESENTATIVES SENT TO STATE CONTEST

In March a preview of the music festival was held when the Band gave a concert for the Farmers' Institute.

Competition at Portage was keen this year, as two new bands, Wisconsin Rapids and Stevens Point, were entered in the A band division. BHS received first in the marching and sight reading divisions and a second in the concert division.

MINNEWAUKAN FACES FINANCIAL PROBLEMS

An ambitious 1948-49 Minnewaukan staff, led by Editor-in-Chief Audrey Kasten, found many areas in which to try its power. One of the first problems was finances. Contracts with commercial companies plus the desire for an enlarged yearbook presented a problem that was met and solved by such means as sponsoring an activity dance, sale of snap-o-grams, a vigorous sales campaign, and even candy sales.

REPRESENTATIVES ATTEND NSP CONFERENCE

During Thanksgiving vacation Audrey Kasten, Sharal Sansum, and Miss Cornish attended the National Scholastic Press Association Conference at French Lick Springs, Indiana. The purpose of the meeting was to give students and directors of publications a chance to hear other's views on mutual problems found in journalistic work.

STUDENT WORK RECEIVES SPECIAL CREDIT

Recognition to a number of students seems entitled by the editorial staff of the 1949 Minnewaukan. Staff photographers John McArthur and Jim Schilstra contributed most of the snapshots; however, the staff is indebted to freshman Tom Russell, Harry Dibble, and Lee Kinney for a number of shots. Division pages are the work of Jack Bittrich, and you will find the initials BW and TB (Bill Wilson and Tom Radke) on the cartoons.

HI-LIGHT INCREASES SUBSCRIPTION SALES

A bigger and better Hi-Light kept the school well informed throughout the year. The number of subscriptions was increased considerably this year, and the size of the paper was slightly increased. This year, in order to finance the paper, merchants of Baraboo placed paid advertisements in each issue. The staff for the year was:

SENIOR CLASS PRESENTS "DEATH TAKES A HOLIDAY"

The very unusual play "Death Takes a Holiday" was presented in the auditorium April 7 and 8 by the Senior Class. The play relates how Prince Sirki, or Death, decided to come to earth for a three day holiday in which he would try to discover what fascination on earth made men love Life and fear Death.

A great deal of credit should be given to the stage crew for their fine work in preparing the set. Built entirely by the stage crew, the set depicted the interior of an old Italian castle. Mrs. Ethel Crandall Rich, who returned to Baraboo this year after a year and a half's absence, directed the production. The cast (in order of appearance) was:

Under the direction of Mrs. Alice Olson, the Junior Class presented AND CAME THE SPRING by Marrijean and Joseph Hayes. The story of the trials and tribulations of a typical American family was well received by the audience.

The play naturally had several near catastrophes within its script, and not to be outdone, Louella Banks sprained her ankle the day before the presentation, creating a catastrophe within the cast. Following is the cast:

HI-Y CARNIVAL MOST PROFITABLE VENTURE

The annual Hi-Y Carnival this year had a smaller attendance than usual, but the net profit exceeded that of any other year.

The Community Center was converted into a midway of concessions, including fish pond, dart game, basketball throw and the usual games of skill and chance.

The highlight of the evening was the debut of the Directorless Hi-Y Band, resembling the City Slickers, and five "beauties" modeling uneven hemlines, mop heads, baggy stockings, and run-down heels. The band and models appeared at the basketball game and later at the Carnival. Frank Hess was named "Hi-Y Beauty" during the program.

HI-Y ENTERTAINS FOR VALENTINE'S DAY

A progressive dinner party was given by the Hi-Y during the Valentine season. Guests called at seven different homes and received a part of their dinner at each one. Barbecued hamburgers were served at one home, cokes at one, ice cream at another, and even door prizes were awarded at one stop. This delightful evening was ended with dancing at the Community Center.

JOINT MEETINGS OF HI-Y AND KEY CLUB HELD

One of the primary goals of the Hi-Y this year was to stimulate friendlier relationships among the various school organizations. As a step toward this goal, two joint meetings were held with the Key Club. Dr. Moon was guest speaker at the first meeting following a pot-luck supper, and a discussion of the new Community Center was the feature of the second meeting.

Hi-Y officers for the year were as follows: President, Roland DuPuis; Vice-President, Robert Luce; Secretary, George Roche; Student Council, Harland Hornick; and Chaplain, Chuck Marking.

TRI-HI-Y OBSERVE FIRST BIRTHDAY

Tri-Hi-Y this year observed its first anniversary in Baraboo High School by having a pot-luck supper at the Community Center. Everyone complained that they were "filled to the brim." At the clubs' initial meeting plans were made for a year's program which would accomplish the aims of creating, maintaining, and extending high standards of Christian character throughout home, school and community.

HANDBOOK PREPARED FOR STUDENTS

The year's most outstanding and valuable piece of work was the drawing up of a student hand-book as a service to new students and teachers. This was accomplished by dividing the club into five different groups. Each student member was required to do a certain amount of work. Much planning and effort was put forth by the members. It is hoped that next fall's incoming students will benefit from the handbook.

OSBORNE AND BENDER SERVE AS PRESIDENTS

Installation of officers took place twice during the school year. Under the leadership of the advisor, Miss Arveson, Tri-Hi-Y elected to serve for the first semester, as president, Julie Osborne; vice president, Nancy Blake; secretary, Audrey Kasten; and treasurer, Lois McCabe. No formal installation ceremonies were held for the first semester corps of officers.

Second semester officers were installed in an impressive candle light service in the Community Center lounge. Those elected were: president, Wava Bender; vice president, Joyce Alexander; secretary, Beverly Stebler; and treasurer, Lorna Shimniok. Two other offices second semester were: librarian, Joyce Swafford and student council representative, Evelyn Waddell.

TRIPS TO MADISON FOR THALIA

Two enjoyable dramatic excursions were arranged this year by the Thalia officers: President, Patricia Nelson; Vice President, Louella Banks; Secretary, Jean Schwartz, and Treasurer, Donna Waffensmith, with Miss Cornish as advisor.

The evening of December 6th the Thalia girls went to Madison to see Gershwin's "Girl Crazy," presented by the University of Wisconsin Players. The 28 handsome, singing, dancing cowpokes and the young hero Danny completely entranced the "unattached" Thalia girls.

Observing the unusual method of presentation, the Molyneux fashions, the changing set, and the excellent acting of Lunt and Fontanne of "I Know My Love," was a highlight of the organization's program.

ONE ACT PLAYS PRESENTED

On March third and fourth the organization presented four one-act plays directed by four Thalia girls under the supervision of Mrs. Ethel Rich. The plays and their directors were as follows: "The Neighbors," Carol Jensen; "The Boor," Nancy Brannan; "Drums in the Night," Jeannine Maxwell; and "Elmer," Pat Nelson.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES HIGHLIGHT YEAR

The Christmas Season Open House, which was initiated this year, it is hoped will be an annual part of the year's activities. Alumnae from the past five years attended the get-together at the Community Center and renewed old acquaintances as well as meeting present Thalia members. Final social activities of the year were the annual Mother and Daughter Tea and the Thalia Banquet.

KEY CLUB WINS FLOAT PRIZE

A highlight of Key Club's year was the float whcih won first place in the Homecoming ceremonies. The unique float represented a sinking ship. Complete with fog horn, anchor, and all the necessities of the sea, it was designed to "Sink the Dells."

Clyde Morris' orchestra provided music for the Homecoming Dance sponsored by the club. The Queen, Jeanne Schwartz, was presented with a gift from the members of Key Club.

REPRESENTATIVES GO TO WASHINGTON, D. C.

The latter part of March Kiwanis Club and Key Club sponsored the much enjoyed Stevens Point Men's Glee Club. Profits from the concert were used to partially pay expenses to the National Key Club Convention held in Washington, D.C. Jack Teich, who in 1948 was elected a national trustee, and Tom Hawkins attended the three day convention.

BILL WILSON HEADS KEY CLUB

Mr. Morris capably served as advisor to the Key Club this year and the club officers were Bill Wilson, President; Bob Hawkins, Vice President; Tom Hawkins, Secretary; and David Walker, Treasurer.

New initiates not only suffered the usual perils but in addition had a K neatly shaved on the backs of their heads to remind them of their privilege of membership.

The year's program included the obtaining of student prices on Friday night at the theaters, handing out programs at the athletic events, a hayride party, and joint meetings with the Hi-Y.

ALLEN BAIR ELECTED TO LEAD F.F.A.

Officers directing the activities of the Future Farmers of America in 1948-49 were as follows: President, Allen Bair; Vice President, Dean Ninneman; Secretary, Conrad Schepp; Treasurer, Duane Dickie; Reporter, Harvey Myers; Sergeant-at-Arms, Duane Klingenmeyer, and Student Council, Jim Quandt.

These boys, with advisors Clayton and Jandt, directed many of the regular FFA activities. The refreshment stand at the home football games was one of the year's first projects. It was an "oasis" to the boosters of the Baraboo High squad. Other money making projects included the sale of garden seed, Christmas cards, the spraying program, and participation in the production of the traditional Ag-Thalia one-act plays.

THREE F.F.A. LETTERS AWARDED

FFA letters awarded on the basis of actual participation in the farming program, scholastic attainment, and display of farm skills were won by Jim Quandt, Eugene Fenske, Allen Bair, and Conrad Schepp.

CLUB HONORS MR. CLAYTON

At the close of first semester when Mr. Clayton left BHS to enter private business, the FFA entertained members of the faculty in his honor. The party was held at the Community Center where the guests enjoyed an evening of card playing. The club presented a number of very useful going-away gifts to Mr. Clayton, including white shirts to replace his familiar khakis.

LUEBKE WINS SPEAKING CONTEST

The annual speaking contest was won by Galen Luebke, a freshman. Richard Opperman and Conrad Schepp were the other local winners. Third place in the regional contest at Reedsburg was taken by Galen, whose subject was the conservation program.

F.F.A. WINS 21 GAMES

An impressive record of 21 games won out of a total of 24 was made by the FFA basketball team in winning the intramural championship. Members of the team were Klingenmeyer, Bair, Lange, Powers, Pierce, Schmidtke, and Melvin. Games were also played with the FFA teams from Reedsburg, Wisconsin Dells, Portage, and Richland Center.

MADISON EXCURSION MADE BY 56

On April 11th fifty-six FFA members made a trip to Madison and were the guests of the Oscar Mayer Plant. Following a complete tour of the buildings, the boys were served lunch in the Cafeteria.

Second stop on the Madison trip was the Capital Times Building. The boys observed the construction of a newspaper from start to finish and then were briefly spoken to by Editor Evjue who voiced admiration for such high school organizations as FFA which develop citizens of ability and service.

GREEN LAKE AND JAG LAKE TRIPS ARRANGED

May 22, 23, and 24 three Baraboo members attended the State FFA Convention at Green Lake. Local representatives were Bob Melvin, Conrad Schepp, and Bill Martin.

The spring activities made a full schedule for the FFA. They engaged in contest in the judging of livestock, (primarily dairy cattle), the farm management program, tree planting, and crop raising.

Fifteen boys are planning to attend the State FFA camp at Jag Lake in Vilas County. They will attend the camp July 5-8. This is the first year local members have planned this trip.

PEP CLUB IS MAIN SOURCE OF SPIRIT

The Pep Club faithfully supported the championship football squad with representation at every home game, at home or away. During the basketball season, when spirits lagged, the group undertook to boost school spirit and to help overcome an outbreak of "booing." Groups of girls went to each of the five grade schools to obtain their support in this problem. Commendable cooperation was given.

UNIFORM FUND STARTED

In addition to the regular functions of boosting team support and moral, the Pep Club started a fund this year for new cheerleading outfits. At the homecoming game the yellow mum corsages were sold and later in the year a bake sale was held to augment this fund.

CHEERLEADERS SELECTED

Serving as officers this year were Julie Osborne, President, and Joan Luce as Secretary-Treasurer. Miss Forsythe served as advisor.

The club selected Jeannine Maxwell, Darlene Bates, Arlene Bates, Tom Hawkins, Donna Duncan, Della Rochester, and Julie Osborne as cheerleaders.

A number of special pep sessions were held during the year. Perhaps most students will remember the Trial of the Southern Ten Football Champs, the Valentine for the Basketball team, and the final appearance of the senior girls leading the student body in cheers.

BARABOO GIRL WINS 'A' IN CONTEST

Every year among Wisconsin schools that have F.H.A. organizations there is a contest held for girls interested in demonstrating ideas learned in their Home Economics classes. The state is divided into districts and sections. The district contests are first held and the winners then take part in the sectional meet where prizes are distributed.

This year the district meet was held at Baraboo. The schools of this district present were Hillsboro, Wonewoc, Reedsburg, and Wisconsin Dells. A Baraboo girl, La Donna Braun, received first place. Her demonstration was a shortened and successful method of baking biscuits. At the sectional meet, again LaDonna received an A rating. Sectional winners will appear at the Wisconsin State Fair next summer and again compete for honors.

SAUK COUNTY WELFARE WORKER SPEAKS TO F.H.A.

One of the most interesting meetings this year was the lecture given by Mrs. Behlendorf, a prominent Sauk County Welfare worker. Her talk was on "The Girl and Her Place in the Home" and an explanation of her duties as a welfare worker which included advising the Juvenile Court and the district attorney on any problems concerning minors, investigations for adoptions, and investigating pending divorces where children are concerned.

CHRISTMAS CARD SALE IS SUCCESS

The Christmas Card Sale was under the direction of Marcella Carl, the organization's treasurer. A profit of $25 proved to be a real financial aid. Other officers this year were president, Joan Waddell; Vice President, Lorna Shimniok, and Secretary, Carol Bettinger.

NEW STUDENT COUNCIL CONSTITUTION ADOPTED

Student Council exercised its freedom of self-government this year by adopting a new constitution for the purpose of more efficient and thorough administration in carrying out its many responsibilities.

COUNCIL SPONSORS DRIVE, HOMECOMING

One of the Council's responsibilities was the managing of the Student Community Chest Drive. The Council welcomes the sponsoring of such a worthy cause and is usually successful in promoting a generous response from the students.

The Council also selected Homecoming committees, managed the parade and gala events which were planned for the yearly celebration. The success of this undertaking illustrated the advantage of maintaining in our high school an organization as useful and cooperative as the Student Council.

Don Wilson was President of Student Council.

MADEMOISELLE PHOTOGRAPHS BARATEEN

The success of Barateen in promoting worthwhile entertainment for Baraboo's youth was well rewarded this year when Mademoiselle, well-known fashion and youth magazine, photographed activities of the Center including the Friday night dance. The pictures, showing Barateen committees, Miss O'Meara, and the many facilities of the Center, will appear in a summer issue of the magazine.

Mr. Smith continued this year in his capacity as advisor to the group. Jeanne Schwartz was president, and Diane Stewart was secretary and treasurer.

On the average one orchestra per month was engaged to provide musical entertainment for the many dances sponsored by Barateen.

SATURNALIA INITIATED BY LATIN CLUB

Saturnalia, the Roman Christmas, was introduced to the Latin Club by its advisor, Mr. Akey. The club members came dressed in Roman costumes and chose as a king, John Bowerman, and queen, Gail Gollmar.

March 26 meant their big St. Patrick's Dance at the Community Center. It was a barn dance with polkas, square dances, and other old time music. In order to be admitted everyone had to wear something green.

This year's Latin Club officers were President, Allison O'Connell; Vice President, Aggie Mandt; Secretary, Eloise Hardy; Treasurer, Martha Langer, and Student Council Representative, Barbara Krumm.

MARDI GRAS SPIRIT BROUGHT TO BHS

The spirit of the Mardi Gras invaded Baraboo High School when the French Club celebrated the traditional festival by attending a supper dressed as comic strip characters in the masquerade custom of Paris and New Orleans.

Movies of classroom activities, student scrapbooks, and a surface map of France constituted the club's display at the School Review.

This year's French Club chose Jo Harvey as President, Dick Radke as Secretary, Nancy Brannan as Treasurer, and Donna Waffensmith as Student Council representative. Janice Holmen was elected program chairman for the year, and Miss Kroening was advisor.

LETTERMEN'S CLUB IS NEWEST ORGANIZATION

The latest addition to Baraboo High School's list of active organizations is the newly formed Lettermen's Club. In order to become a member of this organization a boy must be the winner of a minor or major letter in any sport.

Gordon Waddell, Donald Wilson, and Pat Stone were selected to head a committee whose job was to draw up a constitution for the new organization. These boys corresponded with neighboring schools who already have such an organization in an effort to get a general idea of the basic rules used in their clubs. The constitution will be completed and go into effect next fall.

Garner Smith, assistant coach, was presented with a small gold football of the same pattern as that received by the boys on the team. Bob Luce was president of the organization.

USEFUL PROJECTS SPONSORED BY CIVIC IMPROVEMENT CLUB

Bundle Day was once again the highlight of projects sponsored by the Civic Improvement Club. Students willingly brought many articles useful to needy children of war devastated Europe.

The officers, Conrad Schepp, President; Audrey Kasten, Vice President; Lynette Olson, Secretary, and Sandra Benzies, Treasurer, introduced a new plan to aid the needy right here in Baraboo. A fund was established to help provide clothing for students in the grade schools who are not fortunate enough to have sufficient funds to meet their needs.

Civic Improvement Club has been cooperating in an effort to obtain new community center facilities. It is hoped that before long all will be enjoying the effects of its efforts.
